

EAST BAY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

POTENTIAL CALL & RESPONSE PERFORMANCES AT RMap SITES

East Bay Center for the Performing Arts will commission and produce a number of site-related performances that will bring to life the evolving resident-driven RMap of distinct cultural and neighborhood assets in the city of Richmond. These performances will foster awareness of and broad civic participation in the Richmond Living Map Project, which is focused on building a new narrative of the city - one that celebrates its people, their themes, history, as well as the legacy of its neighborhoods.

If your organization/site is interested in hosting a performing arts performance at your site, please provide the following info and someone from East Bay Center will follow-up with you.
