Re-imagining the World

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Students are expected to:

- Come prepared and on time to class
- Respect peers, staff, faculty, equipment, and facilities
- Participate fully in class
- Remain in class until excused
- Clean up/pick up after themselves
- Dress appropriately

There is a No Tolerance Policy for, but not limited to:

- Drugs, alcohol, tobacco products or paraphenalia
- Harassment of any kind (including verbal, physical, and sexual)
- Unruly, aggressive, or dangerous behavior
- Inappropriate expressions of affection
- Bullying
- Profanity
- Running
- Cell phone use in class
- Eating in class

Consequences

If these policies are not followed, the student will:

- Receive their first warning from their teacher/staff.
- After the second warning, a meeting will be scheduled with the Director of Repertoire Training and/or the Deputy Director of Programs to discuss their behavior.
- After the third warning, a meeting will be scheduled to determine continued participation at the Center. Students who are in the Diploma Program will have their scholarship reevaluated.

Depending on the nature and severity of the offense, staff reserves the right to enforce immediate suspension or measures deemed appropriate.
